To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend Jordan Gallant to you.

Jordan has been one of the most impressive student teachers our school has ever hosted. She has proven to have exceptional initiative and has learned the essentials of effective practice, quickly and thoroughly, for a person of her experience.

This is partly due to her mindset toward the profession. Jordan is very hard working, and believes in the importance in being well prepared to help the students learn to their potential. She is very dedicated to their progress and has set high standards for herself as well as for her students.

Jordan is very reflective and takes feedback very well. She has built excellent relationships with her colleagues and the students. She is very collaborative and would work in a Professional Learning Community very well. She is a quiet leader whose determination comes from her strong positive beliefs. This makes her an excellent role model for her colleagues.

As well as the above, Jordan has demonstrated good judgment, excellent communication skills, strong personal motivation and perseverance, sensitivity and empathy, and a good sense of humor.

Jordan has made a significant impact in our school and we would hire her immediately if a position were available.

I trust that the comments above have given you a good understanding of Jordan's strength. If you have further questions please feel free to contact me as I would be delighted to speak to you about this exceptional young teacher.

Yours truly,
